

Hunt ID: 7201-SD-G-L-2500-MDeerWDeerAntelopeTurkey-R1S-IT2HFA-ANJE-Limited openings

We have an abundance of white-tail deer, mule deer, pronghorn antelope, Merriam's turkey, prairie dogs, sharp-tail grouse, and coyote. You will encounter an abundance of wildlife when guided on this 20,000 plus private land covered with of wooded draws, buttes, alfalfa fields, rolling hills and prairie grassland. Our home-cooking will keep you energized and will give you something to look forward after each day of hunting.

South Dakota has the latest draw applications deadline, June 25th to July 20th. If you have forgotten or missed the other western states application window, or applies and didn't draw, this is your last chance this year. Whitetail licenses are easy to draw but mule Deer are a little more difficult. Both Whitetail and Mule Deer can be drawn with 0 points. Points are only $8 so it is the lowest point cost of any state.

Archery hunts are the most successful from a blind or tree stand. In these hunts of course, we are not with you all of the time, because in this type of hunt the fewer people in the blind the better. We will show you the blind locations and you are welcome to bring your own blind as a plan B.

Lodging

Our lodging includes a fully furnished kitchen to cook your meals if you choose. Also includes a bar area and game room.

Meals

Home-cooked meals are included in the packages listed above. There is no doubt you will enjoy our home-cooking! Lodge has a fully furnished kitchen as well.

License Application Draw Information for South Dakota. South Dakota has a draw system of Big Game licenses like no one else, but it is a Mix of the way Nevada and Wyoming does their draws, with a South Dakota Twist. As a rule, in General it takes 0-1 point to draw a whitetail license and 2-3 points to draw a Mule Deer-Any Deer license. They also have the April Special Buck license application where you can move to the head of the class with a additional $ 300 price added to your license to put you in a special draw. You can also just buy a point each year for only $8. There are some pluses and minuses to this system and ways to beat the system. If you have any questions I recommend getting a point which is possible from April to August and to contact me for details.

South Dakota allots 70% of its licenses to residents and 30% toward Non-Residents in each draw. After each sequential draw the Non-Resident license pool is empty so the rebalance the drawing and put 30% of the leftovers in the resident pool into the Non-Resident pool.

The only draw that they don't do that is not that way is the increased price Special Buck License in April. This license draws from a larger pool and with 0-3 points you can get a Mule Deer or whitetail/Either Deer license that is good for the whole western half of South Dakota. Whitetail on the other hand can be drawn through the regular draw with 0 or 1 point in most years. The hitch is that the draw is a Hybrid Random draw so you never know for certain if you will draw until you have license in hand.
