Welcome to Northwest Colorado, home of the famous Flat Tops and its 60,000 elk! We will put you in the middle of them...but first we must get there.

Our hunting, like the rest of the services, starts horseback. Whether you want a drop camp for your group or a fully guided hunt, we take you in with horses and a pack string. Hunts are offered for Archery, Muzzleloader, and first, second, and third Rifle Seasons. All the hunt packages include game packing, radio contact, and service to a level you will enjoy.

Note: GMU024 requires an archer to draw a license for public property hunting. GMU004 is the same requirement. This is not a requirement for rifle hunters.

We hunt all three of the Marvin Drainages, east, main and west, at camp locations ranging from 4 to 12 miles in from the campground, elevations from 9,000 to 10,300 feet. All camps are in the Flattop Wilderness, GMU024. We offer multiple drop camps and one guided camp. Our drop camps are in the middle of Elk Country, if the elk are talking when you are there, you will hear them from camp. Camps are at altitude, the horses bringing you in will do most of the climbing, you can hunt from camp a 1/4 mile out or several miles, you choose.

Our drop camp locations are Guthrie Lake, Frosty Lake, Smith/Jones, Lilly Pond, Oyster Lake, or Murphey Lake to name several and are situated several miles from any other outfitters camp. All will have at least 14×16 wall tent with wood stove waiting for you with water and fire wood on site and nearby, all the camp equipment will be available for cooking and sleeping, you bring only your clothes, sleeping bag, personal gear and food. We encourage you to bring what you want to have a comfortable camp. We provide emergency radio communications for your stay and will check on you as we can. Each hunt is for a minimum of five hunting days plus the travel days, so a hunt is a minimum of 7 days. The pricing includes the ride/pack in, out, use of camp and pack out of trail ready game.

Guided hunts are out of Hammond Creek camp, and are limited to 6 hunters with a 2:1 hunter guide ratio. The guided hunt is a full-service hunt, with each day's hunt starting horseback, all food provided, assistance with your game, and full use of camp. These hunts are also a 5-day hunt, with additional 2-day travel days, or a total of 7 days. We currently limit the guided hunt to the first two rifle seasons, if you wish either guided archery or third season we need to discuss. Also, if you have a large enough group, 4 or more, to justify a separate guided camp we will be glad to discuss this as well.

We cannot guarantee you an elk, but we would like you to know we will do our very best to provide you with an excellent ride in, great camp and our knowledge that there are elk close to your camp. We will share our knowledge of where we think they might be, and offer you all the encouragement we can for you to go get one. We want you to come back!

We offer very limited hunting for deer; this is not a recommended deer camp; however, you can purchase a bear tag to go with your elk tag. This area also now offers a very limited moose draw, contact us if you would like a help with your moose hunt.
