This outfitter is a full-service back country outfitting operation but even with that skill and expertise he realizes that not everyone needs or wants to be guided. He knows they need and want the challenge of “Doing it yourself.” He spreads his knowledge across all of his hunts and all of his hunters. His packages provide options for the ones with :

- (1) Drop Camp on a lower budget, Then he provides the same with a little more budget
- (2) With a Drop Camp supplied a camp, meals, lodging wrangler for the 3 horses in camp and a guide split between 4 hunters.
- (3) Then last but not least he opens his arms to a traditional elk camp in the Rocky Mountains in Colorado. This hunt has the lodging, the meals, the horses, the wrangler and a guide for each two hunters with the option to provide a 1 hunter with 1 guide ratio if a hunter requests it.

Either package that fit you is your hunt or we invite you on the ultimate in wilderness adventure: High Country Elk Hunting!

You will be hunting east of Pagosa Springs in the South San Juan National Forest. Surrounded by spruce-covered mountains and aspen parks, we are in the middle of some of the best big game hunting in Colorado. Most of our camps are located within the low hunter pressured wilderness area. Horseback is our only means of transportation and it is a one-to-four hour ride into our camps. This means you're off the beaten path (Or as they say today you are off the Grid.) in some of Colorado's finest high country.

Our camp elevations range from 8,000 to 12,000 feet and each camp is located in or near a meadow with access to water.

We offer several different packages to choose from. Hopefully, we have structured one to suit your needs. Although we cannot guarantee you success in your hunt, we are committed to giving you a quality hunt and a memorable experience at an affordable price.

If you have any questions or need further information on any of our packages, feel free to call us at any time. We also have a list of references of successful and unsuccessful hunters who you may call to check the quality of our hunts.

Hunt Descriptions

Each camp includes a 16' x 20' canvas wall tent with flooring, wood stove, cots, firewood, picnic table, cook stove and fuel, pots, pans, plates, utensils, lanterns and fuel, water prep table, wash basin, sleeping pads, bow saw, shovel and axe.

(1) Drop Camp Package: All you bring is your food, sleeping bag, personal gear and weapon. Hunters and their gear are packed in an out on horseback. Each hunt includes a mid-hunt camp check and kill site pick-up if reachable by horseback. If kill isn't reachable by horseback it is the responsibility of the hunter to assist in game packing

(2) Wrangler/Guide Package: This is the most economical package to provide you with the tools you need for high success. Each camp keeps three well-broke horses, one for the guide and two others to rotate between the hunters in camp to cover lots of ground in a day's time. A well-trained wrangler/guide will be in camp to help feed, saddle and care for the horses, as well as provide the camp with hunting tips, location of hot spots and to care for game. He can also help guide each hunter on a rotating basis. You furnish food for you and the wrangler/guide (he is in your camp to take care of horses and assist you in locating wildlife—he is not a cook).

(3) Full Service Package: A 2x1 fully guided hunt in one of our camps with horses, a campjack, and food included. This hunt enables you to spend more time in the woods and less time around the camp. It gives you a campjack to take care of the morning's breakfast, as well as the evening meal, and a well-trained guide to improve your odds of success.
