Trophy Area Hunt

Are you ready for a 180-200-point timber buck on your wall? This is the unit, and this is the outfitter that can do it. Colorado has made this a trophy area and he continues to pump out trophies every year. If you are a meat hunter save your money. If you are a horn hunter you won't mind seeing 10-50 bucks a day closely inspecting them for a missing brow time or something of that nature.

We call this a Barney fife of Mayberry hunt because you will want the outfitter to hold your bullet so you don't shoot a good buck but wait for a great buck which will happen. This is a 9-day trip with a 7-day hunt. You will be in a back in the back country with cabin lodging at 9300 feet. Each day you will set out down a different drainage, so you are hunting fresh areas each day until you find what you are looking for in a trophy class animal. It is a 2 on 1 hunt but because of the difficulty in drawing this area it may be a 1 on 1 hunt.

We have found that Pack-in hunts can be difficult, and worse in bad weather, but the bad weather put the game on the move, so you want to be able to get out. We are the only ones that do this, we drive a long way back into a nice, comfortable hunting Cabin, and eat and sleet there to get out of the weather. For the hunts we have special 2 track roads that we travel to many, many honey holes in this trophy Unit.

This allows everyone to keep warm and most of the hunting is safari Style, Drive, Glass, Spot and Stalk. Of course, the suburban has a heater and we always have hot drinks available to make your hunt a pleasure. Much better than riding a horse in cold snowy weather. You will also get 6 full days of hunting if needed, so it can be said it is an 8-day trip with 6 days of hunting in the middle.

Like any trophy area points or vouchers are the only way the Colorado parks and wildlife will send you a license as an invitation to hunt this coveted area for these monsters.

COLORADO HAS THE LARGEST ELK HERD IN THE WORLD. MORE ELK THAN Montana, Wyoming and Utah combined. Some of our areas are trophy units making them difficult to draw for the rifle season, but the archery tag is over the counter. The archery season covers pre-rut, rut, and post rut, it gets no better than that. Muzzleloader Season is in the middle of September durring the archery Season. Our average shots are 25 yards or less much because we hunt specific areas with high elk populations in heavy cover, just right for an archer. HUNT THE RUT; IT'S THE BEST TIME TO TAKE A BIG TROPHY BULL. This outfitter will assist you with the application process.

Hunting the wester for deer and elk is all a matter of covering as much country as possible. Horses cannot cover a

We specialize in archery hunting for big bulls in the back country of Colorado. We have been hunting here for 33 years and there aren't many elk trails that we don't know about. We would like to take you on one of these wild and exciting hunts. Hunting big bulls in the back country is an awesome hunting experience. Archery shooting will average 25 yards or less and the average bull will be a 5x5 or larger. Elk are about 4 times larger than the average white tail and you can bet they will look real nice hanging on the wall in your den. All the hunts we offer to the archery, Muzzleloader and Rifle hunters. We are Hunting GMU066, GMU067, GMU068, GMU681, and GMU082 Deer & Elk.

We have been in the Professional Outfitting Business for 38 years. We operate in a very large hunting area. We hold permits to hunt in five different hunting units and three Wilderness areas here in the state of Colorado. We operate from two different base camps; both camps have cabins, showers with hot and cold running water and a large galley where all the great home cooked meals are prepared. Both camps are located right in the middle of some very good hunting. These camps are a great place to stay while hunting with us. In addition to hunting Elk and Mule Deer we also offer hunts for Antelope, Black Bear and Merriam Turkeys. Antelope can be hunted with archery, muzzleloader or rifle. Antelope tags do have to be applied for. Antelope hunts are one of our most successful hunts. Bear tags can be purchased for most hunts and can be combined with other hunts. We do some bear hunting during archery and muzzleloader season. Most bear in our area are colors other than black. We have blondes, reds, cinnamon and chocolate. Only about 1 in 10 will be black in color, called Color Phase Bears. Whether you want to hunt big game, do some summer fishing or just take a pack trip into the back country, we no doubt have a trip that will interest you.

This outfitter will take the deposit and hold your seat until the outcome of the draw. If you don't draw you will receive 100% of your deposit back.

Unit 66 Elk Either Sex Muzzleloader

For the Trophy Mule Deer Hunter this is the place to go.

It is going to take 4 points because I have never found a voucher available since the voucher program began.

Simply put GMU067 is a Trophy areas with some Mule Deer Hogs out there but it requires more points to get in the mists of them with a GMU067 License.

If you are horn happy but point poor that an application for GMU066 or GMU068 is your home away from home to shoot something big enough to take home. For Mule Deer.

The elk hunts in these areas are much easier to draw and for the most part 0-1 point and a good guide and Outfitter with years of experience like this one will put you on a wall hanger.
