This outfitter has the land for big whitetail bucks but also has the knowledge, ability and professionalism to manage them well so they continue to come off his properties year after year.

His approach, organization, and facilities should be the standard by which all outfitters are judged. The lodge is a sportsman's dream. Each room of hunters has access to their own bathroom with shower. The rooms are spacious and immaculately kept by a housekeeper. The food is of the highest quality with seconds and thirds encouraged. The scent free room to dress and store gear was an unexpected bonus but shows the attention to detail reflects once again, his pursuit of excellence in camp as well as in the field. This is a hunters trophy experience with a flare of southern hospitality. His gregarious and charismatic personality is the glue that holds everything together.

You will have a setup of 3D targets to shoot at; decoys to use as needed, in addition to transportation to well marked strategically placed tree stands. The camp supervisor has whitetail knowledge second to none. He and his staff work diligently to place and maintain deer stands thus ensuring not only a hunter's safety but, his success potential as well. The guides are of exemplified caliber of representatives of the personnel your camp employs.

Your decision to adhere to a 140" minimum raises the bar and attracts only the most ardent bow hunters. To sum it up, this camp is run with a high level of precision while maintaining exceptional whitetail management practices.
