Chavez Creek is the place to book your hunts in Northern New Mexico's Unit #4. With its breath-taking terrain and exceptional game it promises a memorable hunting experience. At an elevation nearing 11,000 feet with ridges of black timber, mountain streams, and open meadows—it's a hunters' paradise!

This gem of private land borders the famous Chama Land Company that is now owned by the Jicarilla Apache Tribe. The elk go back and forth between the two ranches making the opportunity for a trophy elk very possible. When you get the perfect bull elk in your site there will be no hesitation on getting those bragging rights. We believe you deserve to take home the elk you hunted, not the elk you can afford, and that is why at Chavez Creek we do not charge a trophy fee.

Hunting has been our passion for years. The Bagwell name has been associated with Chavez creek for more than 50 years and this area has been our favorite place to hunt. We take the extra steps to make sure your only concern during your time with us is hunting by taking care of all meals and lodging during your hunt.

The elevation of the ranch is 8,000 feet to 10,500 feet. The Brazos peak is on the eastern boundary. We also offer bear and deer hunting at a reasonable rate.

This is going to be the first year that owner agents are conducting the hunting on this land. However, this ranch has been in our family for more than 50 years, so we know the hunting very well. The terrain ranges from 8,000 feet to 10,500 feet and is home to the largest elk herd in the state. Regardless of the season the range of bulls is the same with most reaching 250 to 340 inches and occasional bulls reaching 340+B&C. This is a fair chase hunt.

After we have received a completed agreement and a deposit in the amount of 50% of your selected hunts the booking is complete. When we send the land owner permits and final bill we will also send you a packet to include a gear list, additional information about the hunt, directions to the meeting point, and instructions on how to obtain your state games license. If there is any further information you need or any questions our website hasn't answered, please feel free to call or email. We welcome any inquiries.
