Feast your eyes on the hunt that fills the freezer but doesn't break the bank. The first hunt is a ranch voucher hunt with a guide and meals on a private ranch in multiple units.

We are providing them at a reduced rate to allow you to hunt a private quality ranches in New Mexico, with a guide and being able to take a nice buck but not a monster.

If you want to be unlimited then below is some elk unguided unit wide tags. Pick your passion these won't last long.

The first one a guide is required to assist you in determining what the ranch defines as a cull or not.

Learn from the hunt with the guide the experience you need to be successful hunting in New Mexico no matter what habitat and no matter what time of the year.

Many people say they don't need a guided.

People that say they don't need a guide means they will settle for less. With a guide pre-scouting and familiar with the property he is always a plus. Now if they just don't want to pay the price required for a guide that is different, just say it.

Many times properties with guides are high quality areas, more game animals and older game animals. So the next time you hear someone say, "I don't need a guide", understand he may not know all of the questions yet, let alone the answers. I have had many that said they didn't need a guide, then hunted 1 day and camped on the landowners back porch asking for his verbal or physical guidance.

People say they don't need a guide! I guarantee each one of us can learn something from a registered guide. If you can't that then pay the extra $3000 and go hunt without a guide on some of our other ranches. Many people that say they don't need a guide come home empty handed and blaming the fact that the elk were too high the deer were too low, they were across the fence from where I was hunting. If you feel you know everything there is to hunting deer or elk in New Mexico you can be guaranteed they don't.

Well I have about beat that horse to death here are some good hunts for those that need guides and those that don't. Here are some that require guiding and some unit wide that don't.

1. We have 2 ranch only tags in unit 37 for deer that is guided and with meals, normally a $4500 package reduced down to only $3295. This is a cull hunt with the guide specifying which deer to take. They are looking for bucks that will never make a good scoring buck but are nice deer anyway as a 3x4 or a huge 2x2 buck that won't fork and so on. Making this even more enjoyable it is during the rut and there is nothing like hunting the rut on private land with a guide, you will have the time of your life, fill the freezer and have a rack for the wall.
