

Hunt ID: SD-WDeerPheasant-All-ORYGREG-URYCENTARMFUNTSH-ALLYS

BIRD AND BEAST ANYONE! That phrase has been used for years for West River Hunters. This allows you to hunt deer in the morning and evenings while hunting corn fed pheasants during the mid-day hours. You will be hunting the county that has the highest pheasant density in the whole state of South Dakota!

We have deer and pheasants individually or Deer and Pheasants on the same trip. With acres and acres of farm and ranch land containing corn and alfalfa along with thick brush along the edges and in the river bottom you can't find better habitat to hunt. We also leave rows of corn standing for pheasant feed next to cover to help the pheasant winter better. Any coyotes are shot on sight so they have gotten quite limited in our area anymore, which is what we want.

PHEASANT HUNTING

Our $ 800 per day pheasant hunt has been discounted down to only $495.00 per day per hunter plus sales tax for Uncle Sam. Our package includes guides, dogs, (but welcome to bring your own), transportation to and from field, ammo, lodging, 3 meals per day, birds cleaned and processed for travel, shooting area and of course lots of stories at the end of the hunt!!!!

We will be starting our 28th year and we are so excited to show you what we have to offer....we look so forward to hearing from you. Any more questions be sure to ask. We're sure you will enjoy what we have to offer and of course seeing plenty of ring neck pheasants. Do check out our face book page and watch the video and see the picture of a father and his 4 sons....that was a first for us here at Century Farm. He has had 3 of the sons here for several years but last year the 4th son was finally able to come with them...we sure had fun! Our pheasant season is October 1 to March 31st providing plenty of weekend and week day to hunt.

Most pheasant hunting is with dogs, your or ours. Don't forget your 4 legged hunting buddy we have kennels for his comfort in lodging.

Whitetail Deer Hunting

3 day semi-guided, rifle season you will be provided a tour of the property and fence lines also the locations of tree stands. In addition you will advise you of the locations on deer and travel corridors. Hunter is responsible for all deer cleaning and it can be taken in town for processing at the hunters expense if you wish.

There is a 4 hunter maximum though hunts are successful they are very limited to keep the quality high for only $1395 for a Rifle buck, or, $995 for archery and any weapon or a doe for $95. There are no trophy fees but there is an 8 point minimum which is easy to follow, most bucks you see will be 8 point or better.

Trophy Whitetail in the wind breaks of South Dakota with over the counter archery or a drawn rifle license. Life is better than good it is a warm rack between your fingers and plus 3 roosters in your game bag as the sun lowers in the background!

Our rifle deer season books early but the Random South Dakota Draw requires a point to just get in the running and because of its random number generator system nothing is for certain until you have license in hand. Now when it comes to archery licenses are unlimited you just have to submit a request application and they will mail the archery license to you. Gregory County has two November rifle deer seasons if you can't make on then the dates of the other are always available.

Hunt a DIY/Semi-Guided Trophy Deer Hunt without paying the Trophy Deer hunt price or a trophy fee when you fill that license. This is a DIY or trespass fee hunt into prime south Dakota whitetail country. It is your choice to stay in town for this 3 day hunt but with the food and lodging right on the ranch it is only $95 it is difficult to beat that in town.

The DIY gets to be more of a semi-guided at DIY price, because the owner will provide you with a map of the property's and all the places he sees deer every day. This is a 3 day rifle or a 4 day archery hunt. The price for the DIY archery Hunt is $ 995 and fir rifle $1295. If you would like to extend the hunt part it is only $ 195 per day, of course the meals and lodging is only $ 95 per extra day also.

These services provide you with the most exclusive, private, and custom hunts available in the area, perfect for the ultimate retreat from the modern world and intrusions.

These are no guarantees in the South Dakota Deer draw their or only the best odds. So it is easier to draw a whitetail doe, then a whitetail buck, followed by s the most difficult to draw is a Mule Deer buck, but with it you can shoot a mule deer or a whitetail. The question is not that you will draw the question is when will you draw.

The other option is to buy the Special Buck license in South Dakota Deer for $560 that is good for any deer anywhere in the state and by=passes the state license draw. It will make your draw about 95% successful but you must put in earlier about mid-April, than the regular draw. The regular draw license is $286 and the application date is in late May with any buck licenses running about 3 points and the whitetail buck running 2 points. As always the archery licenses is unlimited and over the counter on the internet. Rifle Deer Application dates are the latest of any of the states that have an application process, it is in late June.

This is a drawing area that usually requires 1 point to draw a buck during the early season and 2 South Dakota Points to draw the rut season. There are usually leftover doe licenses. The Muzzleloader is doe only and over the counter like the archery season and unlimited. Contact the South Dakota Game, Fish, and Parks for more deer and turkey hunting information.

The archery deer season is set in May and is open to residents and nonresidents. The application process opens in July. There is no deadline for submitting an application and licenses are sold throughout the season. Licenses must be purchased by application through the GFP License Office.

The primary archery deer season traditionally runs from late September through the end of January. The January season is open to antlerless deer harvest only. Prior to January 1st the archery hunt is either sex with archery equipment.

All first time archery deer hunters, resident or nonresident, are required to pass the National Bowhunter Education course.

deer hunter we have additional acreage of corn, woodlot, tree lines and heavy cover to keep the bucks secure and on the property.

If we don't have what you want, then check your pulse, you need more than a couple of days enjoying hunting in this unknown honey hole Treestands, ground blinds, or just a good a place to stand or sit to watch the draws and travel corridors will fill your buck tag with a good whitetail in this fantastic deer and bird habitat. Feel free to bring your own tree stands or ground blinds for your own use.

Come with us in South Dakota where we are celebrating the good ole days, NOW, and will be talking about them for years in the future.

* Please note if you make a reservation to hunt the deer season and don't draw the reservation deposit can be added to or made into a pheasant hunt reservation or refunded.

DEER STATS

Average year hunting success is:

50% success rate on deer scoring 130 or better for archery

80% success rate on deer for black powder ( Resident only)

70% success rate on deer scoring 160 (whitetail deer )or better for Rifle

Hunting Licenses for Small Game, Varmint, and bird (except turkey) licenses can be purchased from South Dakota Game Fish & Parks for pheasants when you arrive. The deer licenses are handled by a lottery draw system with the application due in to the South Dakota Game and Fish in late May. We can assist you with the application process which is similar but has some major difference from other states.

Please note the county is Gregory (#30). Make sure to apply by the first drawing dates.

Here is the key for a Resident and Non-resident to draw a South Dakota Deer license.

By selecting "A season" the season is 11/1/11/04/ -11/15/30.

If you select the "B "season the season is 11/15 to 11/30.

Special Buck Rifle applications ($ 605) are available in March and the deadline for the first drawing is April 20th.

Regular Buck Rifle applications ($ 335) are available in June and the deadline is July 20th.2012

Special Buck Rifle applications ($ 535) are available in June and the deadline is July 20th.2012

Muzzleloader is over the counter. If you are a resident it is a either sex tag and if you are a non-resident it is a doe only tag. Archery is either sex for both resident and non-resident.

Below is the rifle drawing statics. The complexity comes in the multiple combinations. They are

- (1) Resident or Non-resident
- (2) Season A or season B
- (3) Any type deer or Whitetail type deer.
- (4) The other factor is with point(s) or not

The last category is in some cases, usually resident only you will be able to put in for a point with your first choice and a whitetail as your second choice. In doing so you are able to get a license for a whitetail buck a point for next year all at the same time.

Whitetail Buck Apply for 30A/16 season	100% chance of drawing	??? / ??? 0pt

Non-resident with no point

Any Buck-First Apply for 30B/06 split season	50% chance of drawing	??? / ??? 1pt
Whitetail Buck Apply for 30B/16 season	100% chance of drawing	??? / ??? 0 pt

A Resident can draw a whitetail buck as a second choice and collect a point while doing so 30 A or B 16
In this way you can hunt this year and have a point to draw a mule deer next year.

A Non-Resident can draw a whitetail buck as a second choice and collect a point while doing so 30 A or B 16
Keep in mind if you resubmit for the 3rd drawing you may be successful because some resident licenses are put in the non-resident bucket. There are a total of 5 drawings but the 1st and followed by the 4rd are the best ones to apply for.
