

This hunt can be high impact or low impact but when it comes to covering 10,000 acres of elk infested Colorado the 4-wheel drive truck and the 4 wheeler and side by side can easily get you to those pockets where the bulls bed out of sight and out of mind. In addition, this outfitter knows where the pockets are and with this he can set hunters above the elk so that if the blow the stalk or even if shoot the second largest bull in the herd he sets the physical hunter of the group and comes in below to send the biggest bull and herd right into the positioned hunter just trying to protect himself from the escaping herd, action is fast but if you can shoot you are going home with elk. Bull and cow licenses are available and you can carry the second animal tag at no extra hunt charge.

More Grand than you could ever cover in 5 days. Go where the elk are on 10,000 acres of Mule Deer and elk country. Your guided hunt with lodging is $4000 but the 4th season has been discounted down to only $ 2995 per hunter for 4 hunters. The lodging is comfortable cabin lodging but to lower the price you must bring your own food and cook it yourself. Personally I would rather have a guide that is good at finding elk, not one that is good at cooking bacon and eggs; I can always find someone in the group of 4 hunters that knows which end of the pancake turner to hold. You will be hunting in GMU031 during the 5 day 4th season this year 2017. The land is continuous but made up of privately owned, leases, land locked BLM and adjacent BLM. Because of the multiple fence lines it could be difficult to stay on the right property but the guides know it well and know which side of the fences to be on.

Not every bull being taken is 300 plus but there have been many 300 plus bull taken. There is no deer hunting this season but it is great for migrating bull. You will be guided 2 on 1 and be very pleased that you are guided because you could never figure out the fences for these multiple properties and one of them isn't even fenced. The guides know this country but better yet they know where the elk are. They will pre-scout it before you arrive to decide which cabin is the closest and of course they will take note on where the elk themselves are located for the day after your arrival. It is like a well-made plan coming together.

Bring your own ATV and it is helpful to get across these large expanses of property. It starts at as low as 6000 feet in the low land pastures, then works its way up through scrub Oak mountains turning to Pinyon Pines, sage, and timber, with springs and creeks running, across the property surrounded by berries and early season bears. The 4th season is 11/15-19 so the bears have long gone into hibernation by this time. A 4x4 Truck can also travel this country.

You are hunting around and on the famous Roan Plateau in western Colorado. The deer have also migrated north by this time into the Piceance Drainages. The area around this property are high end elk hunting lodges and outfitters with hunt packages running $8000-$10000 with fancy lodges.

This ranch has 3 separate cabins, comfortable but no chandeliers or 5 course meals unless you want to make them yourself. Most hunters would like to put their money into their hunt not into the lodging. This is the last slot open for 2017 it has a extremely high return clientele, and the few slots that do need to be filled each year are grabbed by the waiting list in most cases. WE only hunt a total of 4 hunters guided 2 on 1, There are 2 guides which usually go opposite directions each morning unless something together is planned. That is the total number of hunters on the whole ranch (4) for the 5 day hunt. You will arrive a day before your hunt, and leave the day after the season ends.

ATV's are allowed in fact they are encouraged to be able to cover more of this big country during the 5 day hunt.

We require $ 250 for a second license to shoot a cow, we have many of them. With that you can hunt 3 additional days if needed.

A non-hunting guest is only $200 for the complete hunt.

Turkeys

A new Turkey place that has never been hunted and has lodging on the ranch.

These are real "Long Beards" by Grand Junctions Colorado. No one will be there at this point except for your group if I get a commitment. I have not sent the email ad out yet but plan to tomorrow.

1st tom is $350 and the second is $ 150 more. All pure bread Merriam's, that have never heard an artificial call before. 3-day hunt for 1 or 2 birds. Like all states non-resident tag is about $100. I have to check on the license availability I believe you can buy 1 over the counter but don't know for certain how you have to obtain the other tag, it used to be 100% draw, but you still had to go through the draw. We only allow one group per year.
