

Hunt ID: CA-BC-GBearBBearMooseGoatElkDeer-BCT-Gary

We Hunt all the way from the Alberta border to south west of Chetwynd, British Columbia, Canada. The areas include approximately 3600 square miles of hunting territory and include management units 720,721,722,732, and 733. This is the key to our success rate and the harvesting of exceptional trophies year after year. With this much country available we are able to use strict management plans that will ensure this area is not over hunted. The terrain varies greatly from high glacial mountains, valleys and river systems down to the foothills and farmland which is conducive in growing outstanding animals.

In this area we enjoy:

- Black Bear & Grizzly Hunting
- Elk Hunting
- Moose Hunting
- Goat Hunting
- Deer Hunting

Being involved in the ranching industry has been a great asset to our guide outfitting business. We know the land owners and they have great knowledge of where the animals are and how they move on such properties. This is one reason we hire many ranchers as our guides.

Growing up in the outfitting business starting from a young age when his family purchased a stone sheep area back in 1982, working for the family owned outfitting business and other outfitters from around the country from his early teens until his mid 20's. At a young age he purchased his own outfitting business in Alberta. Following shortly by selling his areas in Alberta and moved with his family to the Lone Prairie Valley near Chetwynd to continue in the cattle ranching industry. It was not long before the outfitting bug caught up with him and when the opportunity arose to guide and outfit in British Columbia.

Hunt the famous Peace River area of British Columbia, Canada, which is some of the most game rich country in North America. We offer Elk Hunting, in the Peace River area of BC.

For the Elk hunting we have 2 hunters per camp and these hunts are done by horseback or riverboat. We offer Whitetail Deer Hunting, Mule Deer Mountain Hunting, in the Peace River area of BC. Deer hunting will either be spot or stalk or done from stands.

In the Spring, we offer Black Bear Hunting and Grizzly Bear Hunting either be spot or stalk or done from stands.

Weather for Bear, Goat, Elk and Moose hunts is generally good, although the occasional snow storm or heavy rain can come at any time. Evenings and mornings are cool and crisp with days warming up nicely.

Weather and temperatures for Deer hunts can vary greatly here in B.C. A change from -20 degrees F to +40 degrees F overnight is not uncommon. Although colder temperatures and snowy conditions are better for deer hunting, we suggest bringing warm clothing that can be worn in layers in case of warmer weather or when walking.

There are no laws in British Columbia regarding camouflage clothing. Snowcamo for later deer hunts is recommended.

Wounded Game

If an animal has been wounded it is the responsibility of the guide to determine the severity of the wound. If the wound is determined to be non life threatening, you will be able to continue your hunt for that species. If, however, it is determined that it was a life threatening hit, the animal will be deemed a harvested animal. At that time your tag for that species will be cancelled and you will not be able to hunt another animal of that species.

We are committed to the retrieval of any and all wounded animals. Your guide and possibly additional staff will assist you in your search. If the animal is not found, we will continue the search after your departure by continuing to watch the area for ravens or other predators working a kill site.

Government Fees

Canadian Government fees for harvested animals are due upon the kill or wounding of any animal whether it is found or not. Be confident in your shooting abilities and make sure the situation is right for you before you shoot.

Deposits

Deposits are non-refundable. If you must cancel your hunt, you may find a replacement or we can assist you in this endeavor if time allows.

Canada's Gun Laws

Canada has new laws as of January 1, 2001 governing the importation of firearms into Canada. Clients can still bring firearms into Canada, however there is a new form and fee that has to be dealt with at the point of entry into Canada.

We will send you a gun form along with an information sheet to fill out, but not sign, prior to your hunt. This form will then need to be presented upon your arrival at the border, where you will sign it in the witness of the border officer. Filling out this form prior to your arrival in will expedite your entry into Canada.

Hunter Info

Arrivals & Departures

Arrivals and Departures will be in and out of Fort St. John, B.C. Transportation from the hotel to your hunting area is included, however if you must make an unscheduled arrival or departure there will be a fee of $200.00 per person.

License and Tags

The hunter must carry his licence and tags with him at all times during hunting. The tags will be cut when the animal is harvested.

Trophies

Trophies are skinned and salted by your guide. A day of your hunt must be allowed for the preparation of your trophy and transportation of meat from the bush. If you require your trophies or meat to be shipped, we can recommend a qualified shipper. We also have a taxidermist that can pick up your trophies and then arrangements can be made with him to have them delivered.

We have a long season which helps a great deal, It opens September 1st and goes to October 31st. We hunt the first three weeks of September in the rut, and the last week of October when they come into our fields.

We offer all our clients the option of trophy fees on other animals, they have to purchase the appropriate tags ahead of time but while they are hunting for elk and run into a moose and shoot it we charge $3000.00, or Whitetail $3000.00 , Black Bear $1000.00, wolf of course is free.

All hunts are done via horseback, jet boat or ATV with Wall tent accommodations and the guide ratio 1 on 1.

7 Day Elk Hunt: Price: $7500.00 plus Government fees of approximately $1200.00

Clients fly into Fort St. John, or if clients are driving they can drive right to our Lodge

We also have a meat cutter and cooler and freezers available.
