DIY Colorado Cow elk hunts 4000 acres for 4 hunters or 2000 acres for 2 hunters, the best time is 11/29,30,31. Some GUARANTEED LICENSES first come first serve. Great Migratory hunts. 20 minutes to town, herd of 60,000 elk.

Hunt the Migration on a DIY/Semi-Guided Cow Elk Hunt that fills the freezer and is extremely easy on the pocketbook. At this time of the year it is not uncommon to see herds of elk from 10 to 100, you just need to know how to sneak up on 100 elk eyes, ears and noses that have protected the elk all of its life.

You will be hunting GMU003 where 60,000 elk travel to their wintering grounds in their annual migration. This is a 3 day hunt November 28, 29 and 30. This area is known for its high success during this season. This is the highest elk success area in the state and being that Craig is the Elk Capitol of the World it shows.

The landowner will show you your perimeter fences, where the elk migration travel corridors are, where the elk like to feed, and the most common day bed areas are. The area has two-track roads to assist you in covering this is over 11 one square mile pieces all connected with perimeter fences. The private ranch property is a main thoroughfare during the elk migration every year. Snowy cold weather expedites the migration and warm sunny weather retards the migration. The elk are comfortable all through this property so they may be day bedding or moving depending on the weather.

Drive, Glass, Spot and stalk is the most efficient hunting method with short walks to check hidden pockets on the ranch for hidden herds.

Your lodging is a discounted package, which is your option to take or you can camper or camper in town in a Campground. There is no camping on the property due to camping fire issues.

Skinning and processing of your elk are available in town if desired.

Pricing, this is a cow elk hunt only at the end of November between Thanksgiving and the end of November, which won't break the bank.
