We are nestled in the heart of Southwest Oklahoma, where year-round hunting is abundant. With over 12,000 acres of land, we truly a haven for the avid sportsman. Natural and liberated wild birds include wild turkey, chukar, quail and pheasant. Canadian geese, Sandhill crane, dove as well as wild turkey, chukar, quail and pheasant can be found "wild." Our release system enables the liberated birds to be as "wild" as the "wild" birds. We manage and maintain all types of wildlife plots for all our game yearround.

Deer, bobcats and coyotes also call Southwest Oklahoma home, particularly along the banks of Horse Creek and Deep Red Creek, which are both within one mile from our headquarters. We also offer Elk hunts that will be sure to satisfy your craving for big-game hunting.
