Meet the Best of the Best Blacktail hunting and Guide in Washington State. Welcome to a hunting success record for his clients of a whopping 97% success rate, unheard of in Blacktail hunting. If you are going for you deer grand slam or just want a great successful hunt here in Washington is the place.

The hunt is a Low Impact hunt from ground blind or tree stands in a are with high Blacktail population density. The altitude is less than 1000 feet above sea level so not high altitude hunts like for many other deer. Our mission is to try and help you bag that trophy animal of your dreams!

Whether it is an elk, black bear, coyote or blacktail deer you're after, Shelby's Trophy Guide Service can help make that trophy animal happen for you.

We specialize in trophy Blacktail deer in the western Washington area, but also offer elk, black bear, and coyote by using our 36 years of experience to make you successful.

If you have never seen or had a shot at a trophy black tail deer, black bear or elk, come and learn proven techniques that you can use over and over again for a lifetime of successful hunting.

This hunt can be archery or rifle and even has some rut hunts but we may book it out a year. Book a bow or rifle hunt with us for an exciting and rewarding experience, and take home antlers.

The skills you want to have at a expert level weather you are an archer or a gun hunter is that your guide is a successful archery hunter on his own time. If he enjoys and is successful in getting that close to the game animal then he will get a archer close and a rifle shooter more than close enough to take is target. That is a 7 letter word means "Success!"
